A successful relaunch of the famous Smooth Skin brand has helped Bright Faces, the Stockport-based soap and trading group, announce record operating results for 2001. The brand can expect to build further on this success as a major sponsor for the Commonwealth Games in Manchester this summer. Breen, 51, the chairman, is a member of the low-key family that founded the business. Bright Faces is doing well overseas, too. It has soap and detergent factories in Brazil. The family's stake in the company is worth about £75m.
